

Since 2017, Evergy Missouri total rates increased about 2.5% while regional rates rose about 11% and inflation was about 24%

Total Rate Change from 2017 to 2024<sup>1</sup>

1) Regional state data is sourced from EIA and is comprised of revenues and sales for all sectors, with 2024 data uses rolling twelve-month average of total revenues and sales ending March 2024. EIA data is preliminary that is subject to change, with 2023 data to be finalized in October 2024. 2) Source: US Bureau of Labor Statistics for historic CPI-U and uses rolling twelve-month average ending November 2023. 3) The corresponding change in total rates for Evergy MO Metro and Evergy MO West were -2.1% and 8.5%, respectively. 4) Evergy pro forma data uses rolling twelve-month average of total revenues and sales ending March 2023 and includes adjustments for the annualized impacts of: ACA/RECA (implemented April 1, 2023). TDC (implemented May 1, 2023); Kansas Income Tax reductions; and Property Tax Surcharge update; outcomes of rate case settlement in docket 23-EKCE-775-RTS. Evergy data is sourced from FERC Form 1 pg. 304 and general ledger and inclusive of customer bill credits. The corresponding change in total rates for Evergy KS Central and Evergy KS Metro were 4.9% and -9.5%, respectively